OF THE

High Point Association

HELD WITH THE

Gibsonville Baptist Church

Gibsonville, N. C., July 1, 2 and 3, 1927

REV. J. B. ELLIS, Pastor

BX6480. H54 H54 1927

MINUTES

Friday Morning Session—10:00 A. M.

Praise services were led by the delegates from Oak Ridge and Elon College.

Scripture lesson was read by Mrs. M. E. Crews, using the 124th division of Psalms.

Singing, "Jesus Paid It All."

Remarks from the President. She, in her own way, expressed her delight in seeing so many present at the beginning of this annual session.

The topic, "The Power of Christian Living in the Home," led by Sisters Dilworth, M. E. Crews, E. L. Lindsay, and Rev. Foster, was beautifully discussed and each one present was made to realize the importance of Christian power in our homes.

The time arrived for the outlined program.

A sermon, by Rev. F. D. Fuller. He was assisted by Rev. E. W. Posey.

Rev. Posey lined hymn No. 487, I Heard the Voice of Jesus.

Scripture lesson was read by Rev. E. W. Posey from John 7-9.

Prayer was offered by Rev. Ballard. Hymn No. 449.

Introduction of the speaker by Rev. Posey. Rev. Fuller used for his text, Heb. 11-10: For we looketh for a city which has a foundation, whose builder and maker is God. Rev. Mr. Fuller preached a sermon that will be remembered by all present. He urged his hearers to look for this city, and showed them the importance of trying to possess this place. His subject was, Faith in God.

Oh For a Faith That Will Not Shrink was sung.

The collection was then lifted by Sister Laura Fuller and Sister Emma Gay. Amount, $5.00.

Prayer was offered by Sister Delilah Pritchette.

Benediction, by Rev. Foster.

Friday Afternoon Session—2:00 P. M.

Praise services were conducted by Sisters Delilah Pritchette, Dilworth, and little Lucille and Virgie Lee Lindsay.

Hymn No. 298 was sung.

Prayer by Sister Dilworth.

Scripture lesson by Sister Pritchard. St. John I chapter was used for the lesson.

The topic: "Has the fifteen years work of the Auxiliary been beneficial to the Pastors and Churches of the Association?" If so, in what way? If not, why? Led by Rev. J. C. Caple, Rev. S. M. Troxler, and Rev. T. H. Harris.

Sermon by Rev. Gholston on Consecration. Rev. Gholston was assisted by Rev. J. W. Ballard.

Rev. Ballard sang hymn No. 490. Go Preach My Gospel.

Scripture lesson, the 23rd Psalm.

Prayer by Rev. Troxler.

Hymn No. 192 was then sung. Rev. Gholston read. He used as a subject, "Our Requirements Under This Dispensation." Hymn No. 303 was sung.

Collection was lifted by Sister Lula Cobbette and Sister Eddeman. Collection, $3.00.

Benediction by Rev. Gholston.

Friday Night's Session—7:00 P. M.

Praise services, led by delegates from White Oak Grove, Elm Grove, Bellevue.

Many prayers and songs were made by the different sisters.

Prayer was offered by Sister Dovie Crompton.

Scripture lesson, by Sister Sophia Richardson, 61st Psalm.

Welcome addresses from the different departments of the church were heard.

The pastor, Rev. J. B. Ellis, extended the welcome on behalf of the Church, Sunday School, and Missionary Circle. He beautifully extended the greetings and words of welcome.

Duets by Misses Lelia Wharton and Mernal Graves.

The response to the addresses was made by Mrs. E. J. Gill.

"I Am In His Care" was then sung.

Rev. Gilmer, assisted by Rev. T. H. Harris, proceeded to begin the opening of the other part of the program for the evening.

Hymn No. 364 was sung, led by Rev. Harris.
Introduction of the speaker was made by Rev. Harris.
Rev. S. G. Gilmer used for his text, Act 4-31. Subject, Prayer. The sermon was delivered in his usual way and manner.

The Holy Spirit came in copious showers.

"Pray On" was sung.

Collection was lifted by Sisters Dovie Crompton and
M. E. Crews. Amount, $3.25.

Benediction.

Saturday Morning's Session—10:00 A. M.

Praise services were led by Brown Summit and Oak Ridge delegates.

Singing by Sister Dilworth.

Scripture lesson, by Sister Mary Cobbs.

The president of the Western Convention was present and was asked to say something.

Mrs. Chavis spoke of the work and made it plain for the sisters.

Rev. E. W. Posey and Rev. Caple spoke also.

The President's address was next in order. She read only her thoughts of well pondered meanings. Each word expressed that she had for twelve months had the work at heart. By motion the address was placed in the hands of the Committee.

Remarks were made by Sisters Dilworth, Thompson, and Crews.

Singing, Father, I Stretched My Hands to Thee.

12:00, noon, the Memorial services.

The eulogy, by Rev. E. W. Posey. He used as a subject, "Promise."

Rev. Caple read hymn No. 255.

Prayer was offered by Rev. Crompton.

Rev. Posey sang hymn No. 497. Rev. Posey used as his text, Revelation 2:10 verse: Be Thou Faithful Until Death.
Singing, "Guide Me, Oh Thou Great Jehovah." Rev. Posey certainly demonstrated to the people that God had been speaking through him. The sermon was enjoyed by all.
After the sermon a beautiful duet was listened to, by Misses Lennie Graves and Maggie Summers.

The collection was lifted by Sister Lindsay and others.
Amount, $1.85.

Benediction, by Rev. J. E. Boykins.

The list of those departed:

Brother Horace Stokes, Elm Grove.

Brother Cobbs, Brown Summit.

Sister Rebecca McNeil.

Sister Eliza Moore, White Oak.

Sister Katie Hopkins.

Sister Lola Cobbs, Elm Grove.

Sister Womack, Elm Grove.

Sister Ada Flippings, Winston, N. C.

Sister Emma Crawford, White Oak.

Sister Ella Williams, Foster's Grove.

Brother Wadlington, Oak Ridge.

Saturday Afternoon's Session—2:30 P. M.

Praise services were led by Mt. Calvary No. 2, Foster Grove, Stoney Creek, Reynolds Chapel.

Hymn No. 298. Sister McCullum read the scripture lesson from Ist Psalm.

Prayer by Sister Wagstaff. Singing, led by Sister Laura Fuller.

Reports from the different circles were then listened to by the Auxiliary. Many helpful reports were made by delegates from Oak Ridge. Mrs. Crews reported her work as doing fine.

Mrs. Crompton reported for Belleview as having done much for the work.

Mrs. Lindsay reported many circles organized and each circle doing well.

Mrs. Pattie Wilson reported several Junior circles organized and doing well.

Mrs. Apple reported Jones' Chapel as doing well.

Mrs. McGill reported for New Light, Greensboro. The circle had given and done much for the missionary cause this year.

Miss Sarah Gilmer reported for Reynolds' Chapel. She made a beautiful report. The circle had been busy helping in each department.

Sister Lucy Thompson asked that a report be given of the work of this body that the State Convention which is to convene in Goldsboro may know of the doings.

After these very encouraging reports the president called for the visitors. Many came forward. Prof. John Gunn, Principal of Alamance High School, spoke for the number of visitors. He expressed himself as being favorably impressed with the meeting and said he had found that a great need of consecrated men and women in the world is needed today. He advised us to continue to live close to God.

The topic: The Duty of Missionary Sisters to Their Children, was discussed, led by Sister Emma Gay, Sister Sallie Thacker, Rev. Crompton.

Sister Gay emphasized many duties of the Missionary Sisters. The duty of love, care, training were emphasized as the foundation for good training for parents.

Sister Thacker emphasized the duty carefulness of speech. She said, we as Missionary Sisters should be living examples for our children.

Rev. Crompton emphasized the duty of giving the child the privilege of being understood. We as Missionary Sisters should see to it that our children have a chance to be educated. He urged us to seek to train our children to be real Christians and not so much about denominations for after all it took a good Christian to be a good member of any church.

Rev. J. E. Boykins was next. He emphasized the duty of training in knowledge of the Bible as the primitive duty of Missionary Sisters to children.

We owe the children respect and teach them how to respect others—their parents, churches, older people.

The collection was lifted by Sister Lula Troxler and Sister Walker. Amount, $4.00. The blessing was asked by Sister Walker.

Benediction by Rev. Crompton.

November 24, 1928.

The one thousand dollar drive scheduled to begin on Thanksgiving Day was opened by a very soul-stirring sermon delivered by Rev. S. G. Gilmer.

Everybody was lifted up. It was followed by an address by Mr. Thacker who was very enthusiastic over the project of the old folks and Orphan's Home. He very ably explained the plans and what the work meant; and what the Auxiliary could do with the co-operation of the people.

Next the President of the Auxiliary, Mrs. Addie Graves, made some strong remarks pertaining to the drive and begged that each church pledge as much as $25.00 for the year.

The collection from the morning session was $61.00.

Mrs. Lottie Griffin asked the blessing.

The meeting adjourned for dinner.

The board decided that our next rally be held in Winston-Salem at Mt. Calvary, No. 1, February 4, 1928.

The second session was opened at 3:00 o'clock. After song service and prayer we were favored with reports, and remarks of encouragement by Mrs. Thompson.

Followed by a sermon by Rev. J. B. Ellis.

The literary program was conducted by Mrs. McGee and Mr. J. H. Graves and was enjoyed by all.

The sisters showed great interest in the project and the collection was $8.00, making a total of $83.50 for the day.

Sunday Morning's Session

The President announced a sermon by the pastor, Rev. L. S. Troxler, assisted by Rev. P. H. Holt and Rev. John Simpson.

"Welcome Sweet Day of Rest," was sung, led by Rev. P. H. Holt.

Scripture was read by Rev. Turner from the 27th division of Psalms.

Prayer was led by Rev. Simpson.

Rev. Holt sang, "When We All Get to Heaven," and Dr. Williams lined the hymn, "I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say."

After which Rev. Holt presented the speaker in the person of Rev. L. S. Troxler. Rev. Troxler's text was found in the second chapter of Nehemiah and the 20th verse. His subject was "Loyalty" and the topic was Duty or Love. "Faithful to a government; or true to a plighted faith." The subject was beautifully handled by the speaker.

Prayer was led by Rev. J. R. McMullen.

The President announced Rev. Holt as representative for the Orphan Home.

The High Point quartett gave a selection, "Let the Church Roll On."

Rev. Holt lifted the collection; amount, $21.77.

Sister Cora Leath asked the blessing.

The President made the announcement for the afternoon. The High Point quartett gave another selection.

The visitors were introduced as follows: Deacon J. L. Cooper, of White Rock Baptist church, Durham, N. C., who gave a very interesting talk. Another visitor was Rev. J. J. Williams, of Greensboro, N. C. Rev. Williams represented a Sunshine Band of Greensboro with $1.00.

"Together Let Us Sweetly Live," was sung and the benediction by Rev. Troxler.

St. James Baptist Church Sunshine Band, Rev. G. G. Williams, leader.

Sunday Afternoon's Session

May 5th, 1928.

The third annual drive of the Woman's Auxiliary of the High Point Association met with the First Institutional Baptist church, Winston-Salem, N. C. Rev. E. D. Gholston, pastor.

The service was opened by singing by the choir, followed by prayer by Rev. E. W. Posey.

Rev. Gholston read scripture sentence from the 8th chapter of Paul's letter to the Romans.

The President was introduced and brilliantly stated the cause of the meeting.

The President of the Sunday School convention was also introduced. Mr. J. W. Graves laid the plans of the Orphan and Old Folks home and presented the report of the work.

The choir then rendered a beautiful anthem, followed by a sermon by Rev. Gholston, which was very ably delivered and enjoyed by all. His subject was: "Creation Groans With You and Me."

Rev. Gholston is always good; but it seemed that he was at his best and I don't think there were many dry eyes. The Auxiliary prays that he may continue to be the most powerful speaker of his age.

The choir sweetly sang, "I Need Thee Every Hour."

The collection ran as follows:
